

Report of Doctoral Comprehensive Examinations

The Plan of Study, including the supervisory committee, must be approved by the Graduate College before a student is eligible to take the doctoral comprehensive examinations.

Instructions:

1. The student completes Part I, enters the dates in Part II, and types the committee names in Part III.
2. Student brings the form to the exam.
3. The committee completes Part III by signing the form and indicating their votes for pass or fail for each exam: written and oral.
4. The student submits the form their Graduate Advisor.
5. The head of the academic unit completes Part IV by signing the form, signifying that the proper procedures have been followed for the examinations.
6. The Graduate Advisor enters the results in the iPOS.

All results, including failure in any one of the required examinations, will be reported. Failure in the comprehensive exam is considered final unless the student petitions for a re-examination, the committee and the Graduate Program Chair make the recommendation and the Graduate College approves the re-examination. A re-examination may be administered no earlier than three months and no later than one year from the date of the original examination. Furthermore, a student cannot proceed to the next portion until they have successfully passed the current one.
